

Introduction to Wedding Planning & Coordination 25th & 26th February 2012

Do you want to be a wedding planner?

If you want to start your own Wedding Planning business, or hope to get a job in an established wedding planning company, then having an overview of the role, the business, the highs and the lows is imperative.

Where best to start than by receiving training from a well established wedding planner?

We offer a week-end wedding planning courses that will provide you with the insight and knowledge to take the first steps into the business world of wedding planning. Our course takes you step by step through a wedding day and the role of the wedding planner and coordinator, we also cover the theory and our wedding planning courses have been designed to give you an overview of the market, wedding styles, marriage law and customers' expectations.

Introduction to Wedding Planning and Coordination is a two day classroom style course that covers the different elements of setting up your business, choosing and working with suppliers; pricing for your services, contracts and working with clients, marketing and press promotion and all the other things you'll need to do to get started and begin to plan weddings. In addition, we'll teach you all about Wedding Day Coordination. This has been designed to take you step by step through the wedding day enabling you to experience the different activities needed of you on the day, and how to create a timetable. We also teach you some 'emergency top tips'

Throughout the two days, we will vary the learning between lecture, hands on exercises and discussions to ensure we all understand the theory and how it will apply to you in your wedding planning business in the future.
